

- Screen all children/babies for pressure injury (PI) risk as soon as possible after admission
- Use the screening outcome to select children/babies who require a full PI risk assessment
- Include older children, their family/caregivers, and the multidisciplinary team in care planning

